

How To Make Money Blogging

To make money blogging, you will need to have multiple streams of income related to the theme of your blog.

The first thing you should do, if you haven't already, is decide on the kind of blog that you would like to have.

Will it be about your hobby? A travel blog, a humor blog, or a business blog?

There are many things you can blog about. But, as a beginner, when trying to make money blogging, you should try to have one theme per blog.

If you have a lot of blog ideas, it is best to create separate blogs for each idea. This will allow you to focus on one with multiple streams of income as you follow the tips below.

MONETIZE YOUR BLOG

Once you decide on a theme, you will want to monetize your blog. One of the easiest ways to make money blogging is to place advertisements on your blog. It is best if the ads relate to the theme and target your blog's audience.

For example, if you decided that you want to blog about photography, then you should have ads on your website that are related to photography. Your readers will be more likely to click on these ads.

To have your blog monetized, you will need to sign up for a Google AdSense account. Once you have your AdSense account, Google will automatically detect the theme of your blog and all of the ads will be relevant to your theme.

When your readers click on an AdSense ad on your blog, you will get paid for that click.

That's just one way to make money blogging. If you want to increase your blog revenue, you will want
